

Derya Oktay

Derya Oktay is currently a Professor of Architecture and Urban Design at the Department of Architecture and the Director of the MS in Urban Design Programme at Eastern Mediterranean University (EMU), North Cyprus, and the Founding Director of EMU Urban Research & Development Center (URDC). In addition, she has been serving as the President of the Society for International Development (SID) Lefkosa Chapter since June 2011.

Her major research interests focus on sustainable urban and architectural design, housing environments and sustainability, urban identity, public urban spaces, architectural design in urban context, and quality of urban life beside her main field of expertise urban design. She was a Visiting Scholar in such universities as UC Berkeley, Politecnico di Milano, University of Michigan, and Oxford Brookes University. She has experience in both qualitative and empirical research funded by the EU, USAID, TUBITAK, and EMU. Her more recent completed research projects include “Measuring the Quality of Urban Life in Famagusta”, a two-year comprehensive survey study funded by Turkish Science and Technology Council (TUBITAK) and included as a partner to the International Programme of Research on Quality of Urban Life coordinated at the University of Michigan, and “Effects of ‘Good’ Urban Design on Social Sustainability: A Comparative Survey in the UK”, an invited survey study carried out at Oxford Brookes University and funded by the European Commission. She has authored nearly 100 publications including books, chapters in refereed books, refereed journal articles, conference papers and popular press articles. She is on the editorial board/panel of various journals in the field of urbanism - i.e. Urban Design International and Journal of Urban Design and Planning - ICE, and spoke in various international and national platforms as an invited speaker.

E-mail: derya.oktay@emu.edu.tr

